

Job Fair

for tenants of Toronto Community Housing

What do Johnson Controls Employment & Training, Canadian Supply Chain Sector Council, and UPS all have in common?

We are working together to create job opportunities for tenants living in Toronto Community Housing.

Most of us want the same things from a job. We want to enjoy the work we do every day. We want our job to make a positive difference in someone's day. And we want to know that the position we have today will lead to something bigger and better tomorrow. We want a career.

Join us for an information/recruitment session to learn more about:

- The 200 jobs UPS has now, and opportunities for advancement if you're hired
- How Supply Chain Management can provide a rewarding career
- How Johnson Controls Employment & Training can help you reach your employment goals

Thursday, September 23
7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

Toronto Community Housing Corporate Office
931 Yonge Street

(Just south of Rosedale subway station)

UPS is currently interviewing for:
