SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Shawn Casemore Power in Procurement

Shawn Casemore is one of those rare individuals who can say he is well rounded in Supply Chain Management and mean it. He has had over 16 years of experience in various Supply Chain Management leadership roles within several industries. Shawn has held roles with companies such as Magna International, Arvin Meritor, Pilkington Glass, N.C.R, Bellwyck Packaging Solutions and Bruce Power L.P. He also serves as an advisor to the board of directors of the Ontario Institute of the Purchasing Management Association of Canada.

Shawn's speaking typically includes presentations to Supply Chain Management professionals and company leaders on topics related to Negotiation strategies, Improving morale in Procurement teams, Supplier management techniques, How to improve procurement in highly regulated environments and Strategies for reducing waste within the Supply Chain. Shawn holds the Certified Professional Purchaser (C.P.P.) designation from the Purchasing Management Association of Canada; the Certified Purchasing Manager (C.P.M.) designation from the Institute of Supply Management; is certified in Six Sigma and a practitioner of Lean Manufacturing.

Shawn has had several articles on Supply Chain Management published in "Purchasing B2B" magazine and "The Connect". He has been cited as "meticulous with details", "a strong negotiator", "passionate about his work" and "driven to obtain results".

Shawn is confident he has chosen the right career, as he has noted on several occasions that the initials of his name align perfectly with his chosen profession.
